In person

The quickest way to get any enquiry sorted out, is by explaining it to any member of staff at the point of service. If the query raised cannot be dealt with immediately then an appropriate officer will provide a reply as soon as possible. You can speak to staff at any of our main buildings.

In writing

Complete and return this comment card. It is available online or can be sealed and posted to us or can be left in one of our comment boxes at any of our main buildings listed on the back of this leaflet.

Our complaints procedure

Stage 1

Our aim is to address your complaint as quickly and easily as possible. The person you first contact will aim to resolve your complaint. In most circumstances mistakes or misunderstandings can be resolved quickly and informally. If this is not possible or the matter is a complex one, you are advised to contact the Service Unit Manager or Head of Service or to complete and return a compliments, comments and complaint form, which will be referred to the appropriate officer for investigation.

If your complaint is in writing, or you ask for a written reply, a response will be sent to you within ten working days of us receiving your initial complaint (or sooner if possible), except for Planning Service which operates a 15 working day response to written or verbal complaints. If your complaint is made in person or by telephone and cannot be resolved immediately, it will be passed to the relevant Service Manager or Head of Service and you will receive a verbal response within five working days, or sooner if possible.

If the issue is more complex or we need to contact other organisations, it may take longer to investigate the matter fully. If this is the case, we will still respond to your complaint within five working days if your complaint is in person or by telephone, or within ten working days if your complaint is in writing. We will let you know:

- what action is being taken
- who is dealing with the matter
- when you can expect a full reply.

Stage 2

If you are still dissatisfied, you may write or ask that your complaint be forwarded to the head of service or director of the relevant department. They will then carry out a detailed investigation and respond in writing to your complaint within ten working days, except for Planning Service which operates a 15 working day response to written or verbal complaints.

Stage 3

If the second response to your complaint is not satisfactory, you may write to the Chief Executive, or his nominee, at the Town Hall, Bangor, who will review your case and respond to you in writing within 10 working days. If longer is required, we will write and explain why and advise you of a new date by which a response will be issued.

Taking your complaint further

If you are not happy with the final response that you receive from us, you may ask the Northern Ireland Ombudsman to investigate your complaint within 6 months. The Ombudsman will not normally initiate action until the Council has completed an investigation using its own complaints procedure.

The Ombudsman can be contacted at:
