

Making Memories

Who: Families

Where: North Down

Duration: One Night Break

Step back in time at the Ulster Folk and Transport Museums. Situated in Holywood, these fabulous attractions provide the perfect day for history buffs, excited children, and the curious.

Ulster Folk Museum, Cultra, BT18 0EU, 028 9042 8428

Wander through the beautiful parkland of the Ulster Folk Museum, where you will encounter costumed locals demonstrating traditional crafts in cottages, farm dwellings, schools, and shops.

Experience bygone life-styles in Ballycultra, the unique Ulster town reconstructed on 60 acres where costumed guides and craft-workers make you feel at home. Discover what life was like in homes, shops, schools, churches and other properties without our modern comforts!

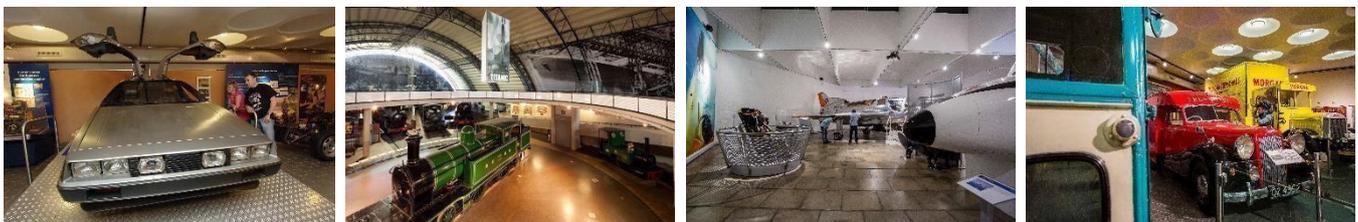

Ulster Transport Museum, Cultra, BT18 0EU, 028 9042 8428

(3 mins from previous)

Next head to The Ulster Transport Museum (just next door). Be transported back in time and explore one of the most comprehensive transport collections in Europe.

You'll find majestic locomotives, horse-drawn carriages, vintage motorbikes, along with exhibits of historical materials including photographs of the Titanic.

Crawfordsburn Country Park, BT19 1JT, 028 9185 3621

(9 mins from previous)

Next stop off at Crawfordsburn Country Park and enjoy a tranquil walk through peaceful meadows and wooded glens. Make sure to find the stunning waterfall. Crawfordsburn provides a relaxing natural retreat, with two excellent beaches, spectacular scenery and views across Belfast Lough.

Bangor, BT20 5ED

(10 mins from previous)

Drive on to Bangor and check into the Marine Court Hotel. Have dinner in one of the many family friendly restaurants in the town. Finish the day with a walk along the coast path to Ballyholme taking in the views of Belfast Lough. Let the kids burn off the last of their energy at Kingsland playpark and Ballyholme beach before retiring for the night.

Pickie Funpark, Bangor, BT20 5AG, 028 9145 0746

(3 mins from previous)

Next morning, enjoy the leisure facilities at the Marine Court before making the short walk along the marina to Pickie Funpark. The park provides a fun day out for all and features an 18-hole mini golf course, giant pedal swans, Pickie Puffer train, children's electric car track, splash pads and a café which has a fantastic family friendly menu and boasts superb views over Bangor Marina and Belfast Lough.

For more information on any of these places and inspiration on your ideal places to stay, phone Bangor Visitor Information Centre on 028 9127 0069.